

Luis Fernando Sartini Felli

Mr. Felli is the Vice President in charge of operations for ETH, Odebrecht Bioenergy Company. Prior to ETH Mr. Felli worked for almost 6 years at Braskem, where he worked in several positions. From June 2006 to July 2008 he was the Vice President of Braskem in charge of the Vinyl's Business Unit; from March 2003 to June 2006 Commercial Director at Polyolefin's Business Unit; from Oct 2002 to March 2003 Marketing and Strategy Director for the Polyolefin's Business Unit. Prior to Braskem Mr. Felli worked at FMC Corporation as Sales and Marketing Director for Brazil; Global Business Manager based at FMC Corporation in Philadelphia–USA.

He is the founder and was the first president of ITB - Institute Trata Brasil, a reference NGO on basic sanitation. He was President of PVC's Institute, from October 2006 to July 2008; he was member of Alagoas state Social Development Council invited by the Alagoas state governor. He holds a B.S. in Agronomy Engineering from University of São Paulo - ESALQ, USP and a MBA from Columbia University, NY.